PAYMENT RULES

SPORT Championship payment rules

- EBF will have to be provided the printed version of the show catalogue and the correct IBAN, SWIFT and NAME of the accounts for each breeder/winner of the prize money, within 60 days of the show, to ebf@ecaho.org.
- In case the organizer has paid the money out already, EBF will have to be provided the printed version of the event catalogue and the official invoice of the payment (including IBAN, SWIFT and NAME of the account) by the organizer, also within 60 days of the event.
- All other after event requested materials (event results, photos) have to be sent to EBF within the same time frame (within 60 days of the event). In case the end date is not met, the money will not be paid out.
- After receiving all the requested materials and account info on all the winners, the money will be transferred. Confirmation e-mail will be sent to the association, confirming that the payments have been made in accordance with the account information provided to EBF by the association. The transfer of the prize money is usually processed at the end of the year.

- EBF will only be in contact with the association, regarding any inquiries of the EBF prize money, and NOT each winner separately. Winner must contact the association/event organizer for any inquiries, questions, comments etc. they may have regarding the prize money. The association must therefore not refer the winner to EBF regarding the prize money.
- Mistakes in the IBAN, SWIFT or NAME of the recipient of the prize money or claims of money not being received, can be retried transferred only once more (if requested by the association), where the fee of the second transfer will be paid by the recipient.
